men killed outright today
in a diamond-shaped railroad wreck at Loray, and a third later. The other man, R. Brodie of the car, and E. E.
of the car, a railroad
man, were injured in the wreck, which overturned the car, which
was believed fatally

was going about 70
miles an hour when it hit the auto. The passenger was killed
over a 40-foot embankment. The car also left the road and rolled over the side of the embankment.

A traveling man of Loray, who was being conducted here after injury, died.

BEAUVAIS DENIES
SELLING DETECTIVES
ANY LOVE LETTERS

Declares Story of Buying
Missives, Said to Be Mrs.
Stillman's for $15,000, Is Utterly False.

CALLS HER PURE AND
INNOCENT WOMAN

Handwriting Identified by Housekeeper for Stillman;
Notes Admitted as Evidence Yesterday.

By the Associated Press.
MONTREAL, Quebec, May 12.—
Specific denial that he had ever sold
any letters to lawyers of James A.
Stillman, who is suing for divorce,
was made today by Fred Beauvais,
Indian guide, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he was in court. Beauvais had sold four letters alleged to have been written to him by Mrs. Stillman for $15,000.

Beauvais said he had seen nobody connected with the Stillman case in Montreal, that he had never received any special letters as were described in court, that he did not know Edmund Leigh, the detective, and that the whole thing was untrue from beginning to end.

Beauvais, accused by Stillman of being the author of the letters, said Mrs. Stillman was "an absolutely pure and innocent woman."

By the Associated Press.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 12.—

The hearing of testimony in the Stillman divorce case closed with a swearing yesterday when a detective hired by James A. Stillman,
New York banker and plaintiff, testified that he and Outbridge Hor-sey, one of Stillman's lawyers, had paid $15,000 to Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, named as co-respondent,
for four letters alleged to have been written to Beauvais by Mrs. Anne U. Stillman.

The purchase of the letters from Beauvais, who, Stillman contends, is the father of 3-year-old Guy Stillman, was made in Montreal last week, the detective, Edmund Leigh, said. It was arranged through James Shean, a New York newspaper man, Leigh explained.

The letters, replete with terms of endearment and such expressions as
"I love every pore of your skin" and
"When can we get married?" were admitted in evidence after Mrs.
Stillman had denied ever having written them. She swore the handwriting was not her own, but Harrington Hubbard, housekeeper for Stillman, looked at them and then said
that to the best of her recollection
the handwriting was Mrs. Stillman's.

Beauvais demanded $25,000 for the letters, Leigh testified, but after several days of negotiations he accepted $15,000. He described dramatic conferences with the guide
and Shean, and said he promised Beauvais that he would say the letters were among those stolen some time ago when a packet kept by the guide was rifled.

"You lied to Beauvais, then,"
asked one of Mrs. Stillman's lawyers.

"Yes," said Leigh. "I would have told any lie to get letters from a man of the character of Beauvais."

Testimony a surprise. Mrs.
Stillman declared it was "outrageous,
preposterous and framing by detectives."

Emerging from the hearing the lawyers said to have paid $15,000
for the letters began arguing with a taxi driver who wanted to take him to a country hotel several miles away.

Many times during the trial of the case Beauvais was active in getting witnesses to testify in his half and that of Mrs. Stillman. In Canada only a few weeks ago he corralled witnesses to contradict testimony he and Mrs. Stillman had been guilty of misconduct.

The letters were considered by Stillman's lawyers, it was learned, as among the strongest evidence they have introduced to prove their contention that Guy Stillman is illegitimate and to clinch their allegation that Mrs. Stillman was unfaithful to her husband in her relations with the Indian.

Mrs. Stillman Unruffled.
But Mrs. Stillman seemed unruffled
last night when with her oldest son, "Bud," and Fowler McCormick,
son of the Chicago Harvester man,
facturer, she departed by automobile
for New York. She referred to the letters as "four worthless scraps of paper."

"I have rested my case," she said.
"I am content to rest it with the testimony of a gentleman who stands or who did stand at the head of one of the greatest banks in the greatest city in the world and he fought with gold. The testimony of his own witness as he closed his case
was that he paid $15,000 for four worthless scraps of paper. I have nothing further to say. I am content to await the verdict."

One of the letters said to have been bought from Beauvais read:
"Dear Berling: The wedding is over and it is 12:45 p. m. and I have just had a hot bath and am in bed.
I just had to write you a letter.
There never will be and there never has been anyone like you. I love every pore of your skin. I love you beyond words. I love you forever and forever. Through this world on to all the others. I want you more than anything on earth. My uncle said last night as we got older it doesn't so much matter where we are but who we are with. When will you be down, dear, and when can we get married, that is all I think of.

When nothing will ever take me
away from you.

"Write me, dear, how you are wondering. I am so tired of everything, so tired I just want to rest and rest in your dear arms. I feel like I don't hear from you. Let me hear soon. Oh, my dear, I am dead for you, just dead. Your
"KATHITIO."

"Sunday, Guy has just been in.
He is lovely, but always when it is hot he writes a little. Good morning, dearest, darling, dear."

Another letter with the address
"270 Park avenue" engraved at the top began "Dearest Freddie," and in part said:

"I thought you would be here
Monday, so that I sent Bud to meet
you. Also Kelly, at Harmon, for the day there. I am tired, dear, but your last letter rested me a lot. I don't want to write, as I don't trust
the mails or the people in the postoffice, but I have only been perfectly happy when with you in the Beauvais Vert since I met you. I love you and all your faults and mistakes."

"I am not well because I can't be until you are as I want you to be. My pride, I am sick of everything and everyone. No one really loves me but you and the children. I saw Nov. 21 or 23. Come and spend a few days with me at Pleasantville.
Come in the week, when there is only Guy, and get off at Harmon
and come soon and love me so I can go on this terrible lonely road a little longer. I will tell you about the work up there when I see you. Love soon and nurse me. Love me."

It was signed "Awar" and there was a design of a four-leaf clover drawn with pen and near it a large cross, over a smaller cross.

Leigh said he went to Montreal
May 6, saw Shean, subsequently conferred several times with Beauvais
and on Wednesday last, the day the hearing opened in Poughkeepsie before Referee Gleason, he and Hor-sey, who had come to Montreal after learning that Beauvais was holding out for $25,000, bought the letters.

Beauvais gave Shean $200, he said.
The Indian, Leigh declared,
claimed the money was marked
when it was shown to him. Leigh tried to convince Beauvais that the greenbacks were the real stuff.

Threatened to Kill Leigh.
"Beauvais told me I would never get out of town alive if I double-crossed him," said Leigh.

Again, after the money and letters
had been exchanged, the guide remarked, according to Leigh:

"Now, if anything goes wrong, you won't leave this town alive. I've got three men watching you."

The day of his arrival in Montreal,
Leigh said he went to Shean's room
at the Ritz Carlton. Afterwards Shean told him Beauvais had hidden in the clothes closet and overheard
their conversation. He explained that the guide "wanted to get a look at Leigh and see if he could trust him."

Three days later, Leigh added, he took Shean to meet Horsey in a private room in the Bank of Montreal,
and a short time afterward the exchange of letters for money was consummated in an office building
across the street.

Both sides rested yesterday and agreed to close the trial on Wednesday unless the defense by then gave notice that it wanted to call other witnesses.

M. & N. A. Regular Train Schedule.
By the Associated Press.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 13.—
Regular schedule of freight and passenger trains between Seligman, Mo., and Kennett, Ark., will be started May 15 on the Missouri & North Arkansas Railroad, according to a telegram received by Missouri
Pacific railroad officials here today.
The road, which suspended operation on July 31, last, has been running limited trains between Seligman
and Leslie, Ark., for the last week.

EAST ST. LOUIS
CHIEF IS PRAISED
BY NEW BOARD

Police Commissioners Compliment Mulconery on Number of Arrests Made
by Department.

PRIOR DEMOTION
HELD NOT LEGAL

Counselor Submits Opinion
Old Board Was Without Authority in Action Following Campanella Case.

The newly-appointed Board of Fire and Police Commissioners of East St. Louis met last night and complimented Chief of Police Mulconery on the number of arrests
made by the Police Department, after City Counselor Browning had submitted an opinion that the previous board, which was removed from office after demoting and suspending Mulconery and eight other police officers, acted without authority
of law.

The new board is composed of
Dr. J. L. Wiggins, president; Thomas
W. Gregory, secretary, and John W.
Maher.

Dr. Wiggins admonished Chief Mulconery and the Chief of the Fire Department that the new board would handle them personally. He said he would remember that the board would co-operate with the Chief in the interests of efficiency.

Secretary Gregory announced that Chief Mulconery probably would have certain recommendations to make later, and the meeting then was adjourned. The next meeting will be at the call of the president.

It will be remembered that the City Council had ordered the previous Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, composed of Dr. F. C.
Little, George Roe and John Neville, to make an investigation of the death of John Campanella, a prisoner, in his cell the night of March 25
after he had been put through the police "third degree" and also other complaints that prisoners had been beaten. The police have declared that Campanella hanged himself.

After conducting several hearings
in the Campanella case, two members of the board, Dr. Little and Roe, signed a report to the Council in which it was stated that Chief Mulconery, Chief Neville of the detective department, and detectives had been demoted to the rank of patrolman and suspended. Their resignations also were demanded.

This report was accepted by vote
of the Council and the board was given a vote of thanks. On advice of City Counselor Browning, who had been counsel for the board that made the report, the police refused to abide by the action. Shannon,
who did not concur in the report, resigned, and Dr. Little and Roe were put out of office. Dr. Wiggins, Gregory and Maher were appointed to succeed them.

When asked last night if the new board would undertake the investigation ordered by the Council, Dr.
Wiggins said he thought it was a matter for the grand jury.

"We cannot go on hearsay or guesswork," he added. "We are new and have hardly had time to become acquainted with our duties. Some institutions might be denied the rate
under this plan because they are supported by organizations of small membership. Residence rates are based on the number of rooms in the house, which is in conflict with the proposed method of fixing the charity rate. Water Commissioner Wall had refused to allow the charity rate to the Y. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.
after City Counselor Caulfield
had given an opinion that they were not entitled to it because their buildings were not used exclusively for religious or charitable purposes.

The bill advocated by the Tenth Ward Improvement Association to abolish the weekly City Journal and advertisements in the English and German language press, was introduced by Alderman Wander of the Seventh Ward by request.

Bill Fixing Charity Water Rate
Would Bar Some Hospitals.
A bill fixing the water rates to be charged charitable and religious institutions, which was introduced in
the Board of Aldermen yesterday,
would have the effect of barring
some hospitals and other institutions
from the benefit of this low rate,
should it become law. It was stated
at the office of the Water Commissioner. It was also said that the terms of the bill would make it impossible to figure the charity rate.
The bill was introduced by Alderman Rein at the request of Thomas L. Anderson, attorney for the Y. M. C. A.
and Y. W. C. A.

It would fix the charity rate at the rate of the regular rate less
one-half.

Division of Taxes.
The proposed rate is for the following purposes: State, 13 cents;
schools, 88 cents; municipal purposes, 11.24; interest on the old outstanding debt assumed when the city separated from the county in 1876, 8
cents; interest on public building
bonds, 14 cents; support of public library, 4 cents; support of zoo, 2
cents; support of art museum, 2 cents.

The increase of the rate from last year's figure of $2.41 1/2 would be subsidized as follows: Municipal purposes, 7.9 cents; interest on county debt, 5.3 cents; interest on public building bonds, 7 cents; State, 3 cents; public library, 3 cents; zoo and art museum, each, 15 cents. The last three items would be increased to their legal maximum.

The bill for the new tax rate was
to have been introduced in the Board of Aldermen yesterday. The charter requires that a new tax rate
be fixed by May 22 or the old one be continued, so that whatever rate is agreed on by the Board of Estimate
will be sent to the Aldermen next Thursday and the bill passed in three consecutive days. Many Aldermen indicated after President

SEVEN PERSONS ARE INJURED
IN AUTOBOMB ACCIDENTS

Girl, 12, Suffers Internal Injuries;
Boy, 17, Knocked Down While Playing; Man, Aged 65, Hurt.

Alma Obermeyer, 13 years old, of 4985 Wise avenue, suffered a fractured collar bone and internal injuries last night when knocked down
by a taxicab driven by T. J. Sonnenstein, 4250 Castlemans avenue,
as she ran across the street at King's highway and Wise avenue.

Cornelia Hundert, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hundert of 6400 Derby avenue, St. Louis County, was cut and bruised when knocked down by an automobile
driven by Clarence Rubin, 1264
North King's highway, in front of 1273 Holmden avenue.

Eugene Meyers, 17, of 1819 Park avenue, playing ball on the sidewalk in front of 2201 Chestnut street, ran into the street after the ball and was knocked down by a taxicab driven by P. G. Burger,
of 5129 Garfield avenue. He suffered scalp wounds and bruises.

James Hambrick, 65, of 3520 Page avenue, was knocked down by an automobile driven by Joseph J. Im-hoff, of 1800 South Compton avenue,
at Grand avenue and Olive street,
suffering scalp wounds and bruises.

George P. Neff, 46, of 4313 North Broadway, driving an automobile,
was knocked off the wagon when it was wrecked by a truck driven by Terry Malson, 3604A North Broadway, at Broadway and Bissell streets. He suffered scalp wounds and lacerations.

Henry Handel, 35, of 1955A Lynch
street, a milk wagon driver, suffered internal injuries when his wagon
struck by an automobile driven by Thomas Camp, 28, of 2323A Arsenal street, this morning. Handel was attempting to dodge another car and drove in front of Camp's automobile. William Seiter, 15, of 2608 Howard street, who was riding with Camp, was thrown against the windshield and an artery in his right wrist was severed.

DRUG ACT AMENDMENT PASSED

Bill to Prohibit Importation of Narcotics Up to President.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A measure amending the Harrison narcotic act to prohibit the importation of narcotic drugs into the United States or its territories was passed by the Senate last night and sent to the President for his signature.

A Federal narcotics board is established to be composed of the heads of the Treasury and Justice departments, who will be permitted to authorize the importation of such quantities of opium and heroin
leaves as may be found necessary for medical and other legitimate purposes. Any alien convicted of violating the act shall upon the expiration of his prison sentence be immediately deported, under the terms of the measure.

LABOR UNION AGENT ATTACKED

Police are investigating an assault on James Moran, 42 years old,
of 1123 1/2 Chestnut street, business
agent for the Laborers' Union, No.
284, who was attacked yesterday at 1400 E. 14th street, where he was in a hallway adjoining the headquarters yesterday afternoon.

At the city hospital he was said to have suffered a probable fracture of the skull and scalp wounds. He told the police he was entering the hallway of the office shortly after noon when he was attacked by five men not known to him. He said he could give no reason for the assault.

CLERK GETS 4 YEARS
IN MAIL ROBBERY

Alois Wiegner Pleads Guilty to Having Stolen Liberty
Bonds.

A sentence of four years in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth
was imposed today upon Alois Wieg-ner, formerly a drug clerk at De Baliere avenue and Kingsbury place, upon his plea of guilty to possession of Liberty Bonds stolen
in the robbery of a Missouri Pacific passenger train at Tower Grove Station on Aug. 18, 1920.

Carl H. Ferguson, a former switchman of the Missouri Pacific,
was arraigned with Wiegner and stated to the Court that he wanted to plead guilty on all five counts in
the indictment against him except
that of entering the mail car.

Ferguson was arrested on a farm near Ward, Ark., for which he had paid $4500 cash from his share of the $35,000 obtained in the robbery.
He said that he was enticed into the conspiracy against his will and that he had never before been in trouble,
had lived uprightly since and under
the indictment against him except
that of entering the mail car.

Refuses to Accept Plea.
Federal Judge Farris declined to accept a plea of guilty that did not include the second count, which charged threatening with a deadly weapon, punishable by an arbitrary 25-year prison sentence.

"No matter how you may feel,"
the Judge said, "that is the law. If you admit participation in this conspiracy, you are just as guilty under this count as if you had entered the car and held the pistol that menaced
the clerk." He set Ferguson's trial for June 4 of Court.

It is expected that Henry E. Wilks, who, following his arrest, made a statement admitting participation in the robbery, and Albert E. Vaughn, a former railway mail clerk, who
of the others charged, plotted the robbery, will be arraigned on that date
also.

FORMER SHERIFF IS SENTENCED

By the Associated Press.
HILLSBORO, N. M., May 12.—Former Sheriff John W. Wilson of Bond
County today was denied a new trial
for his connection with the $34,000
Panama (N. M.) State Bank robbery
Dec. 12, and was formally sentenced to an indeterminate term of from one to 20 years in the Southern Illinois penitentiary, at Chester.

Following the sentence, Wilson's bondsmen withdrew from his bond,
and he was remanded to jail to await transfer to the penitentiary.
His counsel filed notice that the case
will be appealed to the Supreme Court.

Letterman May Deliver but Banker Brown Ought to Finish in the Money

BROWNS LOSE, 7-4; GOOD FOR MCMAUS; SISLER GETS 4 HITS

By Joseph F. Holland,
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff.
(By Exclusive Wire From St. Louis.)

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—The Browns lost today in their second game with Mack's Athletics.

The score was 7 to 4.

Elmer Russell Vandinger had one hit in the third, when the Athletics bunched five hits for an equal number of runs. In the other innings he retired the Mackmen in order.

"Dink" Miller made his sixth home run of the year in the third inning with Perkins on second and two out.

George Sisler came back strong after his batting day yesterday repeating with four hits, including a home run.

Perkins hit a home run in the eighth with a man on base.

Pat Collins batted for Vandinger in the ninth and hit into the left field bleachers for the fourth home run of the game.

Marty McManus, the Browns' second baseman, made his first error in 23 games when he threw wild to first trying for a double play on Perkins in the third.

The Browns have an open date tomorrow and play the final game of the series here Monday.

DEMPSEY BOARDS TRAIN FOR SOUTHAMPTON TO SAIL FOR UNITED STATES

By Associated Press.

LONDON, May 13.—Jack Dempsey, accompanied by the two rather forbidding looking dogs which caused photographers to keep at a respectful distance, boarded a train at Waterloo station today for Southampton to sail on the Aquitania for New York.

He said that after his first tour in America he would begin training for his fight with Carpenter, which it was announced yesterday had been arranged to take place in London or Paris some time before next May.

Dempsey was asked if he thought Carpenter would have a chance to defeat him in their coming battle.

"Carpenter always has a chance to beat anybody," the champion replied. "There is only a small difference in pounds difference in our weight, he is a great fighter, and if he had hit me half an inch lower in the last time I would have been all up with me."

The usual crowd of autograph hunters almost mobbed Dempsey after his does had been faced on the train.

Morvich Will Run Against United States in Annual Kentucky Classic Today

Bradley Stable Seems to Have Best Chance of Defeating Unbeaten Son of Runnymede—Small Field to Face Starter.

By John E. Wray.

Sports Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13.—It's Morvich against the United States, this afternoon at Churchill Downs. Of the original field of nearly 100 eligible to start in the $50,000 Kentucky Derby today, only 10 have survived to take issue with the unbeaten son of Runnymede—Hymir, over the mile and one-quarter course at Churchill Downs, the forty-eighth running of this classic of the American turf.

In the process of weeding out candidates various reasons have been given by the owners of various stables, but the outstanding fact remains that the chances of less than a dozen horses, four of them owned by one man, have been esteemed bright enough to justify sending them against the winner of 11 straight races and $115,000.

A majority of turf followers here believe that the mighty Morvich frightened out the owners of most of his potential opponents, and among the ten other possible starters today there is not one that on his last year's form has more than the whisper of a chance to beat Morvich.

Morvich's Opposition.
There is Letterman, Mrs. Whitney's entry, a "maiden" who has never won a race, there is My Play, the full brother to Man of War, who never won a race as a 2-year-old, there is John Finn, beaten more than once by horses he meets in the race today, there are Surf Rider, Starlet, the only fully trained, not to mention the chances Morvich takes of being out of and of being forced to go around the Bradley stable.

The public has already expressed its view of the situation by backing Horsemans here tell you that "form" is Morvich, and that you can't consistently play anything else in the field.

Very good, unless Morvich lays back and lets some other horse make the pace. Even then, say the Bradley "team" theorists, Morvich will be in the hands of the strong finishers of the field, and that is to mention the chances Morvich takes of being out of and of being forced to go around the Bradley stable.

These theories do not take into consideration the hopes of other horses in the race, some of which may pull the unexpected and "spill the beans" for both the Bradley and Morvich.

The Morvich stable was not borrowing trouble about these. Owner Block went down and took a good look at the $50,000 prize, and in addition to the $47,000 more in cash, will go to the winner. Probably he has picked a spot on his serving table for this very set. At any rate, Block and his associates have no argument that considers the defeat of their great horse. It is as though Man of War were running against speedsters, Burlew and his employer, Cawley, the Derby horse, would be a great deal more than a "cheap" And, indeed, you can't blame them for standing by this proven horse, whose history contains the germ of an Arabian Nights tale.

Morvich Sold for Song.
Morvich was bred by Adolph Sprockels, who let him go for a song. After Morvich won his first start as a 2-year-old, Max Hirsch bought him for $45,000. Hirsch discovered what he thought was a bad knee and sold him to the Bradley stable for $100,000 increase in the price. Morvich had valuable stake engagements, but his knee was bad, so Hirsch slipped what he thought was a "song" for the Bradley stable.

As to the other candidates, the Bradley string comes in for most attention. Of the five, only Morvich has shown himself to be a contender in the American turf. The Bradley stable has been telling the truth and that is that the only horse left standing is Morvich.

Letterman Has Not Won Race.
Letterman, the only entry owned by a woman, has the added distinction of being the only "maiden" who has never won a race. He did not even show an interesting form as a 2-year-old, this year in two starts Letterman has shown himself a different horse. A runaway, unlovely looking type, this "maiden" has been in a race that commands attention. Two days later he ran again and finished fourth, but it was behind some good performers. Letterman may be the outsider in the betting at post time.

My Play and Starlet are coming in for considerable support. My Play finished his 2-year-old form a maiden. But this year, in five starts, he has won three races and has finished second and third once each. He has run in good company with winners and must be given a real chance to get into the money. His kinship to

"Lemon" to Block. But the "demon" continued to win. Another turf aspirant, Al Johnson, became enamored and offered $75,000 for Morvich. Burlew wanted to buy Morvich, but Hirsch would not let him. Hirsch wanted $40,000 to let go his interest. Block then owned him all.

Morvich justified this faith by winning his first race as a 2-year-old, and about $115,000. It is a wonder his broker owner clings to him confidently.

Morvich has not been to the races this year. He has had several trials that have been satisfactory to his stable. He has been in the hands of the trainers, and his owner has been very satisfied with him. He is a stocky horse, but he is sturdy, although not a great big horse.

Conservatives say that Morvich is the form, and that he will either win by a mile or will not run one, two, three.

No matter what happens, it is certain that Morvich will be the pick of the American turf. The Bradley stable is confident of beating this 2-year-old to the post their own representatives.

As to the other candidates, the Bradley string comes in for most attention. Of the five, only Morvich has shown himself to be a contender in the American turf. The Bradley stable has been telling the truth and that is that the only horse left standing is Morvich.

Owner Bradley Has Made Several Big Wagers on Outcome of Classic

The stable says it is better to break down this time-looking animal in a $50,000 effort than to let him go to work. But that is not fair reasoning. Buy American race, as described, might be saved to the turf by retiring him and treating him for his trouble. If he runs a bruising race against Morvich, he will almost certainly be ruined.

The situation is causing criticism here, because it is understood that Bradley stable will not try to win with Morvich, but with either Starlet or My Play.

Bradley last year won the Derby with Behave, who was a favorite of the public. The horse had previously run two, one in the Bluegrass Stakes, known as the "Derby trial" this year. Bradley horses again ran one, two in the Bluegrass Stakes, known as the "Derby trial" this year. Bradley horses again ran one, two in the Bluegrass Stakes, known as the "Derby trial" this year.

Bradley Has Made Big Bet.
Bradley is a wealthy man. He has profound Derby convictions, most of them in favor of his own stable. He will fight for his views and he has already backed them tremendously with money. He has bet $20,000 that Morvich will not win the Derby. It is also reported that the Bradley stable has bet $20,000 that Morvich would not win the Derby.

Earl Thompson Clips 1-5 Second Off Record

NEW YORK, May 13.—Earl Thompson, Dartmouth's star hurdler, today clipped one-fifth of a second from his record in the 110-yard hurdle race when he defeated Harold E. Barron of Penn State in a special invitation race at the Dartmouth-Columbia track meet here.

The old record was 3-5.3 seconds, made at an indoor meet. Thompson's time was 3-5.2 seconds.

The possibility of having Kumagai, who is regarded as one of the foremost Japanese players, come from California has been discussed, but nothing definite has been arranged. Kumagai took occasion to say that his name is spelled without a "u" not Shimidzu.

Concordia Plays Piker Nine Today

Local collegiate baseball honors are at stake in the annual game between Washington University's conference leaders and Paddy Fitzgerald's Concordia, which is set for Francis Field at 3:30 this afternoon.

Coach Davis' Pikers, who won last year's battle by a 3-to-0 score, are regarded as probable winners, due to their position as pacesetters in the Missouri Valley competition, in which they grabbed eight of the 10 games played.

Trautwein, who beat Nebraska in a 10-inning game, will do mound duty for the Pikers. The lucky pitcher has given several sterling performances on the hill this season.

The Seminars have their usual strong team and have won all three contests played so far. They have been getting good pitching from Maas, Brackensack and Melchner, and with heavy hitting have had no trouble in landing victories.

In Heine, Hines and Wilk, the Concordians have a classy collegiate outfield; each of these gardeners is a sure fielder and has been wallowing in the ball at a tremendous pace.

Pikeway Track Team Defeats Grinnell, 77-59

"Baldy" Thurner Individual Star in Washington Victory on Iowa Track.

ANDERWERT RUNS SECOND

Paula, Grinnell Flyer, Finishes First in Both Dashes in Fast Time.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. GRINNELL, Ia., May 12.—Washington University's well-balanced track team scored a 77 to 59 victory over Grinnell College here yesterday.

Grinnell took first in eight events but did not grab enough seconds and thirds to keep in the running. Thurner was the individual point-winner, taking first in the broad jump and high hurdles, a second in the low jumps and a third in the pole vault.

Paula starred for the losers by winning the 100-yard dash in 21.4-58, and the 220-yard dash in 21.4-58.

The summary: HIGH HURDLES—Thurner (W.), first; Grinnell (I.), second; Grinnell (I.), third. Time 10.2-54.

LOW HURDLES—Thurner (W.), first; Grinnell (I.), second; Grinnell (I.), third. Time 10.2-54.

Bill was in tough luck at that. Had he known in the first inning what he knew in the ninth he would probably have struck Bancroft out or retired him in some other way.

However, a one-hit game against the Grinnells is not to be passed over lightly in these piping times of four-base wallpops.

WEBSTER GROVES AGAIN WINS COUNTY TRACK MEET

The Webster Groves High School cinder path and field team retained its championship crown yesterday afternoon by easily defeating the University City, Maplevood, Clayton and Kirkwood squads in the annual track carnival held at Francis Field.

An unusually small crowd was on hand. Webster took first place in eight of the senior events and piled up a total of 68½ points. Kirkwood was next in the seniors with 23 points.

Clayton came third with 21½ points, and was closely followed by Coach Roberts' University City athletes. The Delmar boulevard school compiled 20 points and was trailed by Maplevood.

No records were made at the circus. The Kirkwood boys noted out their rivals in the junior pranks and grabbed the first place with a total of 46½ points. Webster was next in the junior events and counted 50½ points.

Oklahoma 10; Aggies 0.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NORMAN, Ok., May 12.—"Tex" Durkee took the measure of the visiting Oklahoma Aggies yesterday afternoon and let them down with three hits and a 10-0 score, thus evening up the score of the defeat handed him last week by the same team. Heavy stick work from the Sooners and air-tight fielding held the Aggies help-less throughout the game. It was Oklahoma's final home game of the season.

West Superior In Track Events

Comparison of Marks Made in Two Big Meets Shows Marked Difference.

URBANA, Ill., May 11.—A comparison of the results of the Yale-Princeton and Illinois-Wisconsin dual track meets of last Saturday shows that the West was superior in nine of the standard events, while the East came out on top in six.

All six firsts in which the East was high were captured by Princeton in her 71-49 defeat of Yale, while Illinois, winner over Wisconsin by an 88-47 score, carried off six of the nine events in which the West excelled. The Eastern schools made better time than the Big Ten institutions in the middle distance runs, high hurdles, broad jump and hammer throw, while the Illinois-Wisconsin athletes carried off the sprints and the remainder of the field events.

The West was noticeably superior to the East in the high jump, pole vault and javelin events.

The following table compares the results of both meets:

| | | |
|--------------------|---------|--------|
| Javelin | 156' | 192' |
| Shot put | 43' 11" | 45' 4" |

STEEL LIST AGAIN FEAT CURES TRADE ON STOCK MARKET

U. S. Steel Common Active
Along With the Independent Shares—Changes
Among Railroad Shares
Fractional—Exchange
Strong.

By Leased Wire From the New York
Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The Evening
Post in its editorial financial review today says:

"Today's sharp session of the stock market was dominated by the results of the steel companies' annual reports. Substantial advances were made in the shares of the activity and strength in United States steel common and in many of the separate steel companies' shares. The advance in the steel market was a firm one, although activity in the railroad shares was again limited and price
changes for the most part fractional
at about yesterday's level.

"Foreign exchange was strong
without any very great movement.
Sterling got up to $4.44, as against a closing yesterday of $4.44, while French francs recovered all of their recession of the day before. Dutch guilder continued their upward movement and got within 2 points of the high for the year. German marks, meanwhile, were dull. Coincident with the better silver market, the Chinese exchange advanced slightly. Hong Kong dollars were up 4, while Shanghai tael and Mexican dollars gained a full cent each.
The market being dominated by the weather of the past few days, following three or four days of rain, the Census Bureau announced the consumption figures for April, showing 448,434 barrels, a decrease of 71, 407 from March. The market, however, paid little attention to this report, and prices ruled slightly lower.
Wheat, on the other hand, averaged better, although trading in this commodity was also rather dull.

"Continuation of the favorable
statements of the past two weeks
was shown by the clearing house reports. Surplus cleared further to the credit of $1,645,440, the figures for excess reserve standing at $2,595,450
and for aggregate reserve, $184,595,
both of which had increased $250,000
while both demand and time deposits
rose substantially.

PART TWO.

MAY SUGGESTIONS TO CIVIC PLAN AND SCOPE COMMITTEE

Body to Co-ordinate Them as to Urgency and Probable Approval at Popular Bond Election.

NEW MARKET BUILDING ONE OF PROPOSALS

Acquisition of Land in County for Outer Park System
and Municipal Aquarium
Among Others.

MANY SUGGESTIONS for items to be included in any bond proposal which may be undertaken by the General Council on Civic Needs have been submitted to the Plan and Scope Committee, which is co-ordinating the suggestions with respect to urgency and probability of approval in a popular election. A public hearing of the Plan and Scope Committee yesterday brought forth the following among other proposals hitherto discussed:

A new municipal building to house Union and Biddle markets, $1,250,000.
A municipal aquarium, $500,000.
A new city building at Twelfth and Clark avenue to house electric power and heating plant to serve municipal buildings, a laundry, garage and repair shop, $1,000,000.

Outer Parks Suggested.
Some sum for the acquisition of land beyond the city limits as a beginning for an outer park system.

A new armory for the St. Louis element of National Guard, $1,600,000.
A municipal convention hall, to house also the Symphony Orchestra and other art and musical organizations, $5,000,000.

Proposal for new market buildings was made by William Engel, president of the Eighth District, Missions, and the Union and Biddle markets were a menace to the city.

Other Parks Not Discussed.
The proposal for the beginning of an outer park system was discussed by Director of Public Welfare Cliff. Other cities—New York, Chicago and Cleveland—already have acquired large acreage for their parks.

Proposal for a municipal aquarium was made by William Engel, president of the Eighth District, Missions, and the Union and Biddle markets were a menace to the city.

Some Objections to Initiative and How Constitutions Recently Have Been Revised to Meet Them

Menace of Half-Baked and Undebated Measures
Met by Safeguards Designed to Prevent Voters From Being Misled.

THIS is the twenty-first and final article in the series Prof. Loeb has written for the Post-Dispatch on the new Constitution, to make which delegates will assemble in Jefferson City next Tuesday. Prof. Loeb has been one of the most earnest agitators for a new organic law for the State and is widely known as an authority on constitutional subjects.

By PROF. ISIDOR LOEB,
Dean of the Faculty of Business and Public Administration and Professor of Political Science and Public Law in Missouri University.

PROBLEMS RELATING TO THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

WHILE the initiative has not been applied to ordinary legislation in Missouri its use for this purpose in other states has given rise to some important questions that will probably receive consideration by the constitutional convention. One of the chief objections urged against the initiative is that it makes possible the enactment of laws that have not been carefully considered, contain inconsistent and contradictory provisions and are in conflict with the Constitution.

This arises from the fact that any one may draft a measure and that no opportunity is afforded for debate or the adoption of amendments. On this account some states have preferred the indirect initiative which usually gives opportunity for legislative consideration of the measure before it is submitted to popular vote.

Some have advocated the restriction of initiative petitions to bills that have been introduced in at least one House of the Legislature. This does not constitute any serious interference with the principle as it is relatively an easy matter to get some member of the Legislature to introduce the bill. If it is enacted into law there is no need for the initiative, but if it is rejected or amended resort may then be had to that process.

It has been argued that under this plan it should not be possible to use the initiative in the case of such a measure as the proposed new market building, which has received the support of a certain number, say one-fourth, of the members of the Legislature. This makes it impossible to burden the ballot with measures that are not supported by at least some of the members of the Legislature. Another advantage that is claimed to follow from the indirect initiative is the opportunity given to the Legislature to perfect the bill and submit it as a substitute for the measure proposed by the initiative. Both or several sides of the question may thus be submitted to the voter.

Preventing Fraud in Initiatives.
The prevention of fraud and corruption in the circulation and signing of initiative and referendum petitions is an important question that is usually dealt with by statute rather than by constitutional provision. The securing of the necessary number of signatures is at times a difficult matter and resort is had to the employment of professional solicitors for this purpose. Statutes have been enacted for the purpose of preventing this practice, but in North Dakota the Constitution forbids the enactment of any law prohibiting competition in the circulation of petitions. The Michigan Constitution provides that petitions shall be signed at a regular election or registration under the supervision of the courts, which is a provision that has been introduced by statute in a number of states.

Recognition of the fact that the voters should have information about the measures submitted for their action has led in most states to provisions for publicity. The constitutions in some states provide for the official publication of pamphlets containing the text of the propositions with a limited statement of the arguments in favor of and opposed to such measure and require the sending of a copy of this plan with election and the posting of copies at the voting places on election day.

Importance of Ballot Titles.
As it is manifestly impossible to print the measure in full upon the ballot, it is necessary to use a brief title for the measure, and this title should be such as to give the voter a clear understanding of the measure.

Use of a municipal garage, retiring the present garage at Thirty-ninth and Forest Park boulevard for other purposes and providing a space for the housing of Police Department machines.

The second floor he proposed for a municipal shop for the repair of all city automobiles and fire apparatus. The third floor could be used for a laundry, replacing separate laundries now maintained at a great cost.

Free Bridge Item Urged.
A delegation of South St. Louis business men has urged the inclusion of an item of $150,000 for the completion of the south approach to the free bridge. They argued that the bridge thus completed would be the most complete and modern in the world, and that it would be a great asset to the city.

Director of Public Utilities Hoke said that the construction of a municipal building on the old Ford Court site would save the city a minimum of $150,000 a year in operating expenses.

Argument as to Saving.
He suggested that the basement of such a building could be used to heat and light the city hall, municipal courts, lodging house, jail, police headquarters and the city hospital at a saving of $17,500 on coal alone, as it would be possible to move the 21,400 tons of coal required in cars instead of wagon loads as now is done. He proposed that the first floor be destination on main line track. "We could send a car to New York and back again in that time," Arthur E. Wright, secretary of the Manufacturers' Railway, said.

The Plan and Scope Committee went into executive session following the hearing to compile its recommendations to the General Council.

IRISH OBSERVE "BLACK FAST"
Prayers for Peace Are Also Offered at Request of Bishops.

DUBLIN, May 13.—At the request of Catholic Bishops, Ireland yesterday observed a "black fast" with special intercessory prayers for peace, youth and old, kept the country, young and old, kept the fast, many having only one meal. Masses in all churches were offered, crowded congregations attending and returning from service to a breakfast of dry bread and black tea.

WANTS THEM AGAIN
He Warns Them Against Losing
What Prestige They Have Gained in U. S.

GENEVA, May 13.—Eugene Balfour urged the nations of Europe again today that they would lose what American prestige they have unless they made appeals for aid they show some indication of trying to help themselves. His warnings came during discussion by the council of the League of Nations of the American Relief Administration offer to feed Russian refugees in Constantinople.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 13.—Dr. W. H. Black, president of Missouri Valley College of Marshall, and president of the New Constitution Association of Missouri, yesterday was appointed by Gov. Hyde as a delegate at large to the constitutional convention to open here Monday, to fill a vacancy created by the death of Norman A. Moseley of Bloomfield, Black, who is a Presbyterian minister, is said to be a Republican, though he has not been an active partisan.

Not more than a dozen delegates to the convention will be present at 12 o'clock noon Monday by Secretary of State Becker, under a precedent set by the 1875 convention which was convened by Michael McGrath, then Secretary of State.

Probable Initial Proceedings.
Becker will certify to the delegates the result of the election at which delegates were chosen and then probably appoint a credentials committee to "pass upon and make recommendations to the body of the convention on the sixth senatorial district case. In that district a convention of Republicans was unable to nominate a candidate for delegate, adjourning after a hopeless deadlock. At the election, however, 1118 Republicans voted, writing in upon their ballots the names of men of their choice, seven receiving votes.

Stripped of legal phraseology, it will be a court without lawyers, formed by lawyers who, at first thought, might seem to be putting a crimp in their profession. But only the lawyer who lives by litigation and uses his craft to clog the wheels of justice will suffer.

COURT MINIS LAWYERS IS NEW YORK PROPOSAL

Justice and Freedom From Technical Ideas With Equality Before Law Among Objectives.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 13.—Establishment of a tribunal of arbitration that will afford sweeping relief to the congested Supreme Court was announced yesterday at a luncheon at the Lawyers' Club. It will be in operation next fall.

To it the disputes of individuals, corporations and organizations may be carried. Two parties may go to it, choose a third, who may even be a layman, to sit in judgment, and the decision will be final. There will be no appeal except where actual fraud or corruption might be shown.

All kinds of controversies, except criminal and divorce matters, may be lawfully determined, or where a person is incompetent by reason of lunacy, idiocy or drunkenness, of where a claim to an estate is involved.

The tribunal will be open alike to the general public and the trades, but it will not be trade court. The settlement of industrial disputes under it will not be encouraged at first. In fact it has been decided by those interested that mediation and conciliation are better than arbitration where large bodies of men are concerned. In a word, it will be a people's court.

World-Wide Scope Anticipated.
The announcement was made by former Judge Moses H. Grossman, who fathered the idea at a luncheon he gave to Federal and county judges, prominent lawyers and representatives of civic organizations. Several of them had incorporated the Arbitration Society of America, which is to carry on the court, promote the idea of arbitration, conciliation and mediation, speed justice, make it less unshakable from technical ideas, establish simple truth, safeguard it with privacy and promote good feeling and understanding between disputants.

Chambers first in this city, then in other cities of the State and eventually in other states and in foreign countries, it is expected. Stripped of legal phraseology, it will be a court without lawyers, formed by lawyers who, at first thought, might seem to be putting a crimp in their profession. But only the lawyer who lives by litigation and uses his craft to clog the wheels of justice will suffer.

PIKE COUNTY CROWD THAT OVERFLOWS HALL HEARS REED DEFEND RECORD

Effort to Transmit Address to Those Outside
Hall by Radio Not Successful and Is Abandoned After Few Minutes.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
LOUISIANA, May 13.—Senator Reed's two-hour speech to a Pike County audience here last night was a selection from his opening address at Moberly, with an added discussion of the taxation policies of the Harding administration, developed more fully than in his last preceding speech at Monroe City.

Louisiana was well pleased that Senator Reed, and a band met him in the train. The town opera house, the meeting place, seats 800 normally, but Reed's campaign manager, Ed. A. Glenn, who lives here, managed to get in 100 more seats and many stood at the Hyde and his ilk. It was made to transmit the speech to those outside by radio, but after the Senator had held the transmitter in his hand for a few minutes, to the obvious hampering of his active side of delivery, word came that the device was not working well, and the Senator, much relieved, laid the instrument down and strode to the front of the stage.

Many farmers were in the audience, which began entering the hall at 7 o'clock. Senator Reed began with a tribute to Pike County, to the late Champ Clark, and to Senator Stone and former Gov. Dockery. The Senator said that with Clark and Stone dead, and with Dockery retired from active work, he felt somewhat alone in his efforts.

Wants to Eliminate Hyde.
"My proudest ambition," he declared, "is to take Hyde and his ilk out of the capital at Jefferson City." Reed then told of his own position in the 1920 campaign, when he declared "I was absolutely ruined and denied respectable treatment or decent places."

"They conducted the campaign in their own way," he said of those who temporarily eliminated him in 1920. "And we went to a terrible defeat. Now I am coming back to rally the hosts of Democracy." He predicted that the Democrats would have the help of many Republicans, tired of misrule and abuses.

He then took up the charge that he had "fought the President on everything." As in previous speeches, he declared "I have stood with the President on all except a few matters, and proceeded to give his version of such differences as there have been."

Declaring the place of representing Missouri in the Senate to be a "proud and puissant" one, he repeated his "rubber stamp" remarks on the excess profits tax, removing at the instance of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, had been estimated by Government experts to yield $450,000,000 a year, the income tax, and the removal of the excess profits tax.

He addressed himself to Republicans, as well as Democrats, in talking of taxation questions. He said the excess profits tax, removed at the instance of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, had been estimated by Government experts to yield $450,000,000 a year, the income tax, and the removal of the excess profits tax.

As to the income tax, he said that, barring small relief through increased exemptions for men with dependents, there had been no substantial reduction of incomes under $450,000 a year, the income tax, and the removal of the excess profits tax.

General Says Adequate Preparedness on Part of America Might Have Averted World War.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 12.—Gen. Pershing, writing of "Our Plans for the National Defense," in the current American Legion Weekly, maintains that the absolute minimum in the standing army below which it is highly dangerous to reduce already has been reached.

Reviewing regrettable experiences attributed to unpreparedness of the United States in part was the Gen. writes that "as to the World War, I firmly believe that a substantial condition of preparedness of our land and naval forces, backed by an adequate merchant marine, would have kept us out of the war, and would have placed us in a position to have brought it to an early termination."

"Moreover," he continues, "it is not too much to say that under these conditions and with strong leadership we might have prevented the World War altogether."

In his article, Gen. Pershing visualizes the tripartite army which "we are struggling to create" under the Reorganization Act of June, 1920, a welding of regulars, trained national guardsmen and a large citizen reserve into a homogeneous whole. He pleads with his comrades of the American Legion to "support the modest estimates of the administration of men and money needed to perfect our well-considered plans for a basic organization and for preliminary training that we may avoid another humiliating experience before the world."

"The story of American war is one of gallant deeds and great personal courage on the part of the individual officer and soldier, but lack of preparation and training has always led to undue loss of life and heavy financial burdens," the Gen. writes.

Victories in Early Wars.
"While we boast of having been victorious in our early foreign wars, it was due more directly to the weakness of the enemy and his engagements elsewhere than to the exercise of wise forethought in preparation or to superior strategic or tactical ability on the part of our own forces or their leaders. We are prone to shut our eyes to these plain facts, a condition reflected in Congress, which has generally considered its duty well performed if, after the beginning of war, it has authorized the raising of an army and provided for its maintenance."

"In the Civil War, even a small, well-trained force would probably have ended the war before the country became involved and would have saved the loss of thousands of lives and untold treasure on both sides."

At this point Gen. Pershing expresses the belief that American preparedness and strong leadership might have prevented the world war. "Never until our own experience have we sought a remedy for the avoidance of past errors," he continues, "but after each war we have been merely back to the policy of saving a few dollars and have spent for moderate preparation in order to meet the billions spent because of lack of preparation."

Gen. Pershing explains, would be built on the structural framework taken bodily from the world war, so that the traditions, esprit and prestige of the great combat units would be perpetuated.

Reinforcement.
"The combat component of the regular army in the United States is so small as to be almost negligible in the event of hostilities with a first-class power," the Gen. declares.

"Therefore, the National Guard must, under our adopted military policy, immediately take the field in great emergency, and this force must be trained and organized, ready to deploy upon the declaration of war, as the bulwark behind which the Federal Government will mobilize troops and industries."

"The organized reserves, constituting the largest group in the war armies, would not be maintained at strength in time of peace, save for a few trained units of the American Expeditionary Forces could be brought into the field."

"As this is written, Congress is engaged in the consideration of drastic reductions in our professional personnel, and in the sums estimated as necessary for the training and equipment of the citizen forces. No thinking man can be justified in demanding a large professional army, but there is an absolute minimum below which it is highly dangerous to reduce, and that we have already reached. The obligation of the professional soldier to defend our colonial possessions, particularly the important outposts of Hawaii and the Panama Canal, and the law for the organization and training of the citizen forces, remains unchanged."

"Any arrangement that contemplates the taking of the offensive in a new war is impracticable because of the immense expense involved in time of peace, and the impossibility of its being kept in being because it would not be in keeping with our democratic ideals," Gen. Pershing says.

"The existence of an armed force would be militarily a disadvantage and very difficult to maintain. But our initial role on land is defensive, and it is the National Guard, with our small re-

Pana (Ill.) Ex-Banker Dies.
By the Associated Press.
PANA, Ill., May 12.—David M. White, 88, retired banker, merchant and farmer, died here yesterday. He was prominent for many years in State Democratic politics. Six children, including Ernest L. White, president of the Pana National Bank, survive. Fifteen years ago he divided a large estate equally among his children.

Nominator of Lincoln Dead.
By the Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., May 12.—One of Lincoln's nominators, John W. Souther, formerly of Corvallis, Ore., died here at the age of 82. He was a delegate from Oregon to the National Republican convention in Baltimore in 1864 when Lincoln was nominated for a second term.

Journalist Dies in Norfolk.
By the Associated Press.
NORFOLK, Va., May 12.—Charles Frederick Stansbury, journalist, died at a local hospital last night after an illness of about a month. Stansbury, whose newspaper career was identified chiefly with the field in New York and Washington, was at one time married to the editorial staff of the New York Sun. He was 72 years of age.

Regular Army, which is charged with the fulfillment of this mission. Later, as the offensive becomes necessary, it is the National Guard and the larger organized reserves, supplemented by the regulars, which must carry a war to a triumphant conclusion.

Summing up, Gen. Pershing says: "Contrast the National Guard and the regular army, holding the battle line while the greater army of reserves is being formed, with our ignominious plight during the first year of the late war, when we were forced to depend upon the armies of France and England to defend our possessions until the American Expeditionary Forces could be brought into the field."

"As this is written, Congress is engaged in the consideration of drastic reductions in our professional personnel, and in the sums estimated as necessary for the training and equipment of the citizen forces. No thinking man can be justified in demanding a large professional army, but there is an absolute minimum below which it is highly dangerous to reduce, and that we have already reached. MEXICAN SITUATION
EXPLAINED BY RADIO

Two Addresses and Varied Musical Program Sent Out by K S D.

The fact that America is insisting upon a treaty with Mexico before it will accord the Obregon Government recognition has created a diplomatic impasse which both governments are trying to get around, explained Daniel Dillon Jr., former Government censor for the Carranza Government and representative of an American news syndicate in Mexico. Dillon spoke from Radio Station K S D last night on the subject of Mexico. He returned about three weeks ago from the neighboring republic, and last night declared himself an optimist for Mexico.

"I am very hopeful for an early solution of the difficulties which prevent American recognition of the Obregon Government," he said. "I am extremely hopeful for Mexico under President Obregon. Obregon is the most Anglo-Saxon Latin I ever saw. He has so little of the indirectness of the Latin race as to be almost blunt in his directness. You never fail to get an answer from him if you want one. He is very friendly to America in spite of the present situation, and for that reason it is better to be an American business man in Mexico than to belong to any other nationality."

Predicts Settlement.
"The present administration at Washington has announced that recognition will not be given Obregon's Government until there is a treaty between the United States and Mexico. Now Mexico has a Government like ours. It is necessary for the Mexican Congress to ratify a treaty before it becomes effective, and as the present Mexican Congress is 75 per cent socialist, such action would be impossible. However, I believe a way around this diplomatic impasse will be found, for it is to the advantage of both countries for the United States to recognize the present Mexican Government."

In discussing the character of Obregon Dillon said there is no truth in the story that Obregon is of Irish ancestry, and that his name is a Spanish adaptation of the Irish name of O'Brien. The present President of Mexico was born and brought up in the State of Sonora and all his ancestors were Mexican ranchmen.

An interesting talk broadcast last night from Station K S D was made by Douglas Williams, formerly publicity secretary of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce. Williams told how this city has gained its reputation as a perfect host to distinguished guests, and described the hours and days of work necessary in carrying out a flawless program for the reception and entertainment of notables who are the city's guests.

Amusing Anecdotes.
A number of amusing incidents not known to the public were related in this talk, notably the fact that Gen. Dias of the Italian army refused the elaborate breakfast prepared for him and made his meal of two raw eggs broken into his cup of black coffee, and that the Queen of the Belgians insisted on keeping a group of musical artists cooling their heels in an anteroom while she enjoyed hearing a quartet of negroes sing plantation melodies.

The music program of last night given by members of the Centenary M. E. Church choir and of exceptional excellence. Those participating were Miss Leonore Riehm, soprano; Roland Arnold, tenor; and A. Lawton Gordon, pianist.

Tonight there will be two musical numbers and two addresses. Miss Lily R. Gavin, soprano, and Isabel White, 11-year-old pianist prodigy, will present the music program, and the speakers will be Dr. John Lavan, shortstop of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Clinton J. Masseeck, Masseur's subject will be the influence of womanhood on the commercial life of America, and Dr. Lavan will discuss the physical benefits of baseball.

Movie Theater Installs Radio Receiving Apparatus.
Radio entertainment, as a theatrical innovation, became an established fact yesterday when, for the first time in St. Louis, the Missouri Theater surprised its matinee audience with a number of selections taken from the air and amplified from the stage with a "loud speaker."

The hearty approval with which this novelty was received so impressed Manager Goldman that he has arranged for regular radio numbers for the enjoyment of the Missouri patrons throughout the coming week. A loop aerial is used.

K. of C. Clubhouse to Be Discussed.
The contemplated $2,000,000 clubhouse for the Knights of Columbus in St. Louis will be discussed by John S. Leahy, president of the Knights of Columbus Building Co., at a breakfast to be given by De Andrea Council No. 860, at St. Alphonsus (Rock) Church, Grand and Franklin avenues, tomorrow morning.

Members of the council will assemble at Grand and Franklin avenues at 7:15 a. m., and march in a body to the church, to take part in holy communion. The breakfast will be given following the communion.

W. H. H. PETTUS' INVENTORY FILED

Personality Consisting of $155,144.58 and Several Pieces of Realty Listed.

An inventory of the estate of William H. H. Pettus, of 4371 Westminster place, retired banker and capitalist, who died Feb. 2 at the age of 80, was filed for probate today. It consists of several parcels of valuable real estate that he owned outright and others in which he had an interest, and a portfolio consisting of bank and railroad securities valued at $163,114.58.

The most valuable piece of real estate is a seven-eighths interest in the property on the south side of Olive street, 57 1/2 feet east of Seventh street.

In the will specific bequests of $468,000 were made to children, as follows: Eighty-five thousand dollars each to one daughter, Mary Elise, and three sons, William G. Eugene and Joseph H. Pettus; $125,000 to Morrison Pettus, son, and $1000 to Charles Parsons Pettus, son.

The will was made before the death of his wife, Mary, to whom the residue was bequeathed, but since she had died, it reverted to the executor of the will, to the daughter and to William and Eugene. William and Morrison are named executors.

It was learned that the reason for the bequest of only $1000 to Charles Parsons Pettus was because the estate had been shared with him before his father's death.

WIFE OF CONSUL MUNDT COMING
Landed in New York yesterday and will arrive here tomorrow.

Hugo Mundt, German consul in St. Louis, will return to the city from New York tomorrow with his wife, Mrs. Lily Mundt, who arrived in New York yesterday, aboard the S. S. Reliance from Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Mundt will make their home at 4915 West Pine boulevard. Mundt is the first German consul stationed in St. Louis since the war. He arrived in the city last December.

Club Women Visit Charitable Home.
Club and society women visited the Salvation Army Rescue Home, 3741 Marine avenue, the Boarding Home for Working Girls, 1224 Dillon street, the Industrial Home for Men at 13 North Third street, and the Salvation Army Fresh Air camp near Ferguson, yesterday, under the leadership of Mrs. J. Alex Goodman, president of the Woman's Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Upton S. Chamberlain, president of the Federation of Women's Clubs. The women will gather at a downtown hotel next week to discuss Salvation Army institutions.

French "Trying to Satisfy Tourists."
By the Associated Press.
PARIS, May 12.—Representatives of three big associations of hotel keepers, restaurateurs and luxury industries called on Ambassador Herrick yesterday to protest against anti-French propaganda in the United States hostile to French touring interests. The protestants told Herrick they knew the efforts being made to prejudice American travelers against France were due to foreign influence and declared they were striving to meet all the requirements of American tourists.

BOARD TO CONSIDER UNION OF DENOMINATIONS IS EXPECTED

Amalgamation of Methodist Episcopal Church South and United Brethren Suggested.
By the Associated Press.
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 13.—A new church union of proportions hitherto suggested made its nineteenth quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, here yesterday that the denomination join interests with the Church of the United Brethren in Christ.

The suggestion came through Bishop H. H. Fout, of Indianapolis, fraternal messenger of the United Brethren, who told the conference that he was empowered by the Bishop of his denomination to say that any steps toward federating on the part of the conference here would meet with their hearty approval.

That the suggestion was coming was known only to a few of the higher church officials, and it created a demonstration which continued several minutes. The conference voted to send the suggestion to the official opinion was that a commission would be appointed to represent the conference and negotiate with a commission to be named by the United Brethren conference which sits a few months hence.

The United Brethren church has a membership of about 400,000 and has interests in many middle western and eastern states, including Kansas.

ROBBER BEATS WOMAN TO DEATH IN HOME

Diamond Rings Taken by Slayer
in Cleveland—Man's Tooth
Only Clew.

By the Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, May 12.—Mrs. Helen Silberberg, 45, wife of Aaron Silberberg, a broker and owner of a chain of motion picture theaters, was beaten to death and apparently robbed of diamond rings valued at several thousand dollars in her apartment home in a fashionable residence section about noon yesterday.

She was found unconscious in the living room by her 11-year-old daughter when the child returned from school for lunch. She died at a hospital a few minutes later without regaining consciousness. Her skull was fractured in two places, both jaws were broken, and there was a deep gash below her left eye. The third finger of her left hand was broken and hacked, apparently in an attempt to obtain a diamond ring which was still on the finger when she was found.

Several diamond rings which she usually wore were missing. The living room gave evidence of a desperate struggle. A man's eyetooth was found under a small table. It had been broken off short and is the only clew the police have. Police believe the tooth was knocked out by the woman in the struggle.

WILL OBSERVE "MOTHER'S DAY"

St. Louis Churches to Hold Special Services Tomorrow.

"Mother's day" will be observed with special services in honor of mothers, at some St. Louis churches tomorrow. A joint meeting of children of the Sunday School of St. John's Methodist Church, King's highway and Washington boulevard, and adult members, will be held in the church auditorium at 9:30 a. m. Letters inviting attendance have been sent members of the church. The evening service at Third Baptist Church, Grand avenue and Washington boulevard, will be in honor of mothers. There will be four brief addresses, one by a mother, one by a son, one by a daughter and one by a father.

There will be special services at Pilgrim Congregational Church and at St. Peter's Evangelical Bible School, Warne and St. Louis avenues. Some pastors will have the subject, "Mother's day" at one of their services.

SHOTS SAID TO HAVE BEEN FIRED FROM AUTO AT MAN ON STREET

Police, After Shooting on Compton Avenue, Trace License Number Given Them to E. J. Hogan.

Policemen attracted by five shots fired in rapid succession near 929 North Compton avenue, at 8 p. m. yesterday, were told by witnesses that the shots had been fired from a red automobile as it sped north in Compton avenue. A man on the sidewalk, they said, apparently was the target for the bullets, but he was not harmed.

De Luxe Ice Cream

"The Choicest Product of the Dairyist's Art."

City Dairies De Luxe Ice Cream, in competition with the finest ice creams of the best caterers, has been awarded first place in many exclusive hotels, clubs and homes.

These awards were made strictly on merit of quality after thorough tests of the product and inspection of our plant.

City Dairies De Luxe Ice Cream won because it contains 16 per cent butter fat in the finished product, and in richness, delicious flavor and smoothness—is without an equal.

We invite the public to make the same thorough test of De Luxe Ice Cream and inspection of plant.

You will know then why City Dairies De Luxe Ice Cream, although necessarily highest in price, has quickly attained first place in St. Louis.

A trial order will convince you of its unequalled merit. Take it home in perfect condition in our Sealright, liquid tight, sanitary container—in all convenient sizes.

Maxims of a Modern Maid

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall.

THERE will be no equality between the sexes until it is just as impossible for a woman to remember the name of the first boy who kissed her as it is for a man to remember the name of the first girl he kissed.

Only the novelists can make their heroines cry effectively. The woman in real life who tries to make her eyes look "like drenched blue violets" usually succeeds in making her nose look like a drenched red strawberry.

The greedily impetuous lover reminds one of a seagull fishing. He is in such a hurry he gobbles his emotions whole, or drops them before he has a chance to know their true flavor.

When a stranger calls a married woman "Miss" she is divided between glee that he may think her still in the matrimonial running and gloom that he may put her among the also rans.

Young lovers doubtless are among the objectors to daylight saving. To Romeo and Juliet, one hour of moonlight is worth 24 of daylight.

Home is a vastly overestimated spot; as noisy as a flat-wheel street car, as uncomfortable as tight shoes, as expensive as a chorus girl.

It must be so nice to be a man. He never spends any time worrying about what some girl thinks of him; he is interested—if at all—in what HE thinks of HER!

Sometimes, when a man has followed St. Paul's advice and married lest a worse thing befall—he finds it couldn't possibly!

Courage is the ability to answer, when a man says, "But I bore you"—to answer, then, promptly and brutally, "You do!"

When you hear a woman say that she would trust her husband with ANY woman ANYWHERE, you wonder whether she is a good liar or whether he is.

One wonders if, just for the sake of variety, Don Juan wouldn't like to find ONE young married woman whose husband DOES "understand" her and whose friends DON'T say she's a thousand times too good for him! (Copyright, 1922.)

HOME-MAKING HELPS

"Everything About the House Helps to Make the Home"
By WANDA BARTON

An Easy Way to Give a Delightful Maytime Luncheon

A SUN parlor or a screened porch is the place usually chosen for a Maytime luncheon.

Of course, spring flowers and branches of apple or cherry blossoms, if available, should be used for the decorations. Lilacs, in many places, are in profusion at this time, and may be effectively used.

At this season we all long for the out-of-doors, and every suggestion of out-of-doors in the decorations, through the use of ferns and potted plants as well as flowers, will add to the pleasure of this Maytime luncheon. Of course if showers make the use of the porch inadvisable the same idea can be carried out in the dining room.

The little strawboard roll which carries the straw-paper invitation is tied with yellow ribbon, sealed with black wax.

On the dining table place a centerpiece and dillies of Japanese straw mats, round in shape. In the middle of the table place an oval straw basket filled with variously-colored hyacinths. Beside each plate put a wee straw broom with a place card attached having the inscription: "In sunshine use the bushy part, in storm the other end." If preferred, flower place cards may be used, inscribed with appropriate quotations. These can be easily found, as all the poets are fond of writing about spring. The cards are tied with yellow ribbon. Scalloped paper-mache service plates painted straw color, and silver for only one course are found upon the table.

Begin by serving a fresh fruit cocktail made of grapefruit, orange, diced pineapple, cherries and a tablespoonful of heavy spiced syrup in each glass. Decorate with a spray of fresh mint which has been wet in iced water, shaken, then dusted with powdered sugar.

Next serve jellied tomato bullion with crisp croutons. This may be followed by green smelts, with tartar sauce and finger rolls. Then serve broiled spring chicken, baked potatoes, baked asparagus and currant jelly. Tiny hot rolls are acceptable with this course. Next comes the salad. It may be a fruit concoction with a boiled dressing which with coffee completes the meal, or it may be one of lettuce hearts with Russian dressing, after which may be served a strawberry ice or a shortcake.

Nearly all the food can be served in the small waterproof fancy containers which come for the purpose. The chicken course, where the knife has to be used, requires a plate. Even the jellies can be hardened and chilled right in the paper cups. This means a luncheon practically without the aftermath of dishwashing, except in the case of the cooking vessels. Best of all, there is no table linen to launder, as the large-sized soft paper napkins are winning their way to favor for many informal meals.

How much more frequently we would one and all of us entertain our friends were it not for the labor of caring for extra service used in so doing.

(Copyright, 1922.)

Egg Moderne

BOIL six eggs hard. Cool, peel and put the yolks through a ricer into a bowl which has been wiped with a bud of garlic. Chop the whites fine with six large olives and a half a small red pepper. Fold in a small cup of mayonnaise made without mustard. Add a teaspoonful of onion juice, a teaspoonful of sugar and a half-teaspoonful of paprika. Spread sandwiches in the usual manner. The mixture may also be used as a salad by serving it in cupped lettuce leaves.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

THE POWER OF MEMORY.

The burglar was not always bad,
Nor swift to club and shoot;
He did not practice as a lad
His criminal pursuit.
Before to follow wicked ways,
He foolishly decided,
He feared a teacher's piercing gaze
The same as you and I did.

To youthful memories he clings
The while his trade he plies.
The thought of school and teacher brings
The moisture to his eyes.
His mind moves back across the years
And often he will start,
Responsive to the self-same fears
That smote his childish heart.

A burglar came the other night
To rob a furnished flat.
Where 'neath a soft and rosy light
A lady teacher sat.
She did not scream and leave the place,
Or give a frightened cry,
But fixed upon the burglar's face
A stern, reproving eye.

He dropped his jimmy on a chair;
His face went ashen gray,
And cowed by that familiar stare,
He slowly slunk away.
For burglars, quite like you and me,
Although behaving ill,
At times, when moved by memory,
Are little children still.

EXPLAINED.

According to London Punch, the inhabitants of Genoa were forbidden to expose their washing during the conference. The clothes lines were probably all reserved for the dirty linen of the Powers represented there.

MODEST AMBITION.

All that Germany and Russia ask of the other Powers is to leave them alone till they are in a position to lick the world.

OF COURSE.

New York easily placed a $45,000,000 bond issue. Burglars and bootleggers find it to their interest to support the city government.

COMING BACK.

Genoa has regained some of the publicity Christopher Columbus gave the place by leaving it.

of embezzlement of the company's funds, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary in 1931 for embezzlement of $2888 from the company, but was paroled in 1932.
Bergman, who was 35 years old,
has been in his recent employment seven years, starting as a keeper.

Developments in the case
last night:
Announcement by Edward
W. Waterman, president of the equipment company, that the discrepancy in Bergman's accounts from 1921 to the present, as revealed in an audit, is $28,400. It was thought at first that the sum
would not exceed $25,000.
New Residence Sought
Bergman's new residence is located at 2143 Forsythe, the company's elaborate furnishings
an attachment, and posted
St. Louis County Deputy Sheriff guard them.

It was learned that the discrepancies were covered
the use of false footings
company books, which were looked, apparently through carelessness, in the last regular audit. Announcement was made the shortage would not affect company, as the loss was
from the profit of which of Bergman had had no knowledge.
